Nuisances. (Ord. 37, July 6, 1914.)

SEC. 29. No person shall maintain, or permit to be maintained, on property owned or kept by him or her within this city any condition productive of a nuisance detrimental to the public health, or which may be so declared by the board of health, and upon receipt of notice from the board of health that such condition exists on the property owned or kept by him or her, it shall be his or her duty to abate the nuisance created thereby to the satisfaction of the board of health within the time limit specified in such notice.

SEC. 31. No person shall place in any public highway or square of this city any tin cans, broken glass, or other objectionable refuse or organic matter subject to decomposition, either vegetable or animal, nor allow any waste from any property owned or occupied by him or her to run into any alley or street or any open gutter along any street or alley, or to accumulate upon the surface of the ground at any place in such manner as to be offensive or to constitute a menace to health.

Privies and Cesspools—Construction and Maintenance. (Ord. 37, July 6, 1914.)

SEC. 30. No person shall install, use, or maintain any system or disposal of sewage either by privy, cesspool, or by a connection with a municipal or other sewer system except such method be in accordance with a regularly adopted system which has been planned by a competent sanitary engineer and approved by the board of health. All cesspools, privy vaults, and sewer connections must be constructed and maintained in accordance with the system so approved and adopted.

SEC. 33. Any person, firm, company, or corporation using, maintaining, or owning any privy, cesspool, or water-closet abutting on or adjoining any street or alley on which is located a public sewer, shall connect such privy, cesspool, or water-closet with such sewer in such manner as to carry away all refuse deposited therein, whenever and wherever said sewer connection shall not exceed 50 feet in length between property line and sewer.

If any person, firm, company, or corporation shall violate this provision of this ordinance and shall persist in and continue to violate the same, due notice of such violation having been given by the mayor, then and in that case such condition shall be remedied by the city making all such alterations and connections as shall be deemed necessary, the cost thereof to be collected as other debts due to the city are collected.

Penalty. (Ord. 37, July 6, 1914.)

SEC. 32. Any person or persons charged with any duty or obligation hereunder who shall refuse to perform the same, or any person or persons who shall violate any of the provisions hereof, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine not exceeding $100, and in default of the payment thereof to undergo an imprisonment in the city lockup or county jail for a period not exceeding 30 days, provided that the magistrate before whom such conviction is had may substitute for the said imprisonment hard labor upon the streets or other place provided for that purpose, and provided further that the penalties fixed by this section shall not apply to violations where the penalty is specifically fixed by act of assembly or some other provision of this ordinance, and provided further that in the case of the abatement of nuisance or like offenses where the offender is directly required to perform some act the sentence shall so require the performance thereof within a specified time, and in the event of failure so to do the payment of the costs thereof when such act is done in his behalf by the city.
